Ballet shoes

I can feel toes vibrating, and I am on my toes ready to spin.

As the music starts I am ready.
I can hear the air swooshing.
It sounds like fire burning.

I am excited back stage
but nervous too!
I can hear my heart beating faster than ever.

It's time to go,
Everybody's excited.
I am on stage now,
the crowds cheering.

I have finished my show,
I feel proud.
The day has ended.
Then I say that was the best day ever!

Coco Tobin

Big Tackle

I can hear the football bouncing , hitting the net.

I can see the grass
it looks very wet.

I can feel the football going into the goal.

Zac Thomas Wilde

Boxing

I hear the whistle about to blow.

I am in position to fight.

I am on my toes
to punch and kick.

Then I hear the whistle blow.

The match begins.

I am very excited.

Then he punches me

But my left hand comes up

And I block the shot.

Then he falls down

and I get a point.

Then he punches me

and I call it the Red Bull charging towards me.

I am scared

I win

That was awesome.

Joey Lamb

Break Dancing

I wear special clothes and special shoes.

I enjoy street dancing
because I do handstands against the wall.

I feel like my hands
are a block of ice.

I enjoy dancing.

Lola Jay Raj

Climbing

I am going to climb
for England.

Up up I go faster and faster I go.

I am nearly at the top

I am climbing
for England.

Django

Cricket

I see the wicket gleaming
in the sun,
the captain commanding
the fielders ready...

I hear the snap of ball to bat,
the thump of ball to padded gloves and the fielders' shout of 'Howzat'.

I smell the food for lunch break,
the fresh scent of grass and the stench of bat polish.

I taste the snacks at tea,
the water at drinks
and the celebration juice!

I feel the wind against me,
sun on my back
and the weight of the ball.

Matthew Burnell

Cycling

I see the road

I hear zzzzzz

I can feel the cool breeze on my face

I am cycling fast.

Noah Jay Bishop

Dolphins

I can smell lovely chlorine.

As I swim I feel like

I can swim with dolphins.

As we splash

as we swim

to get as far as possible.

I love swimming with the dolphins.

Kaisha

Football

The football match is going to begin.

It smells sweetly.

It tastes nasty.

It feels hard when I save the goals.

I see someone is going to take a hard shot in my face.

Someone is coming towards me.

I jumped and turned around.

The ball hit my back

so it wouldn't hurt my face

because I turned around.

Alim Ali Tahir

Football

Football makes my body fit and healthy.

I warm up for my teams.

We eat.

We score!!! and jump.

We have half time.

We eat during half time.

Hamza

Football

My best thing

Is football

because I can feel the studs

on my football boots.

But they passed the ball

I scored an amazing goal.

We won the match.

I like when I win.

My team carry me

because I scored

all the goals.

Taal

Football

Scoring goals and cheering

Were the crowd

My mind is racing.

Everyone is cheering me on

While I am coming onto the pitch.

I take my position

(in goal).

It is a home game

The fans are cheering.

I am playing really well!

We win the match

1-3 to us.

A Dream come true

My mum and dad are searching for water because we have no food to eat. My sister is at mosque and my brother is crying. My parents can't afford for all of us to go to mosque. I can taste the dry dusty air and I can smell the smoke from the bombs that have dropped. I am in Africa.

The scars on my face mean I am poor and I have no food to eat. This has been happening all my life. I have to drink dirty water.

Bam! A bomb has just dropped heavily next to me. My face has more scars and my flesh has been burnt off. One of my legs has been blown off and I feel like I've been hunted by a wild wolf.

My dream is to have my leg repaired, have food and get a job when I'm older. And for everything to be peace.

I am sixteen and a letter has been delivered to me. 'You have been chosen to come to London and get your leg repaired'. My dream has come true.

Two years have passed. I'm earning money and have enough food. Most important – I have had my leg repaired. I have sent money and food to my family.

Hamza

Handball goals

I'm in the goal

on my toes.

The ball whooshes

through the air.

I miss the ball

I feel happy for the person

On the Jamaica team

But sad for my team mates.

Next time I'll try and do better.

Wooooaaaahhh!

Leon

Ice Skating

I feel weird

because I am on ice for the first time.

Everybody is swishing around me.

Snow comes down as glittery as crystals.

When they glitter sparkles

it makes me feel good.

Rean

Loving Dogs

I love walking dogs,
I love walking in the woods,
and I especially love
looking at the beautiful wind blowing the trees' leaves.
I can hear birds tweeting.

I can feel the dog's lead
Pulling in my hand.

Keira

My favourite activity

I taste metallic blood

I feel furious pain

I hear rock hard punch

It looks fun.

Katie

Planting trees and plants

Trees and plants

Will fall asleep

They will day-dream

And fall over.

I hear them frown.

Freddie

Rats on my bed

The rats are let out now.

Daddy's reading me a story now.

The rats are very cute

I am sure they love

playing on my bed.

It is time for them to go home.

It's been a busy day.

Helena Macnish

Rugby

When I'm on my toes

I feel brave.

I hear shouting,
whistling and cheering.

I feel the wind

as I run with the ball.

I get ready to start the match.

I won't let the other team win.

My team can not wait for half time.

At the end of the match

we wait and see who wins.

We listen carefully to the ref

then he says Leeds Rhinos win.

I can not wait for the next match.

Marcus Webb

Rugby days

It's like fire

I feel scared

but I'm not giving up.

As he comes

I throw a dummy

I've got another

30 to go.

There's a fire!

All I could hear was

Woo woo nee naa

Woo nee naa!

Police firetrucks and ambulances.

100 people died

and 3 rugby players.

I survived.

Joseph

Running

I hear the horn blow

so I have to go!

“Bye bye!”

I smell pancakes,

burgers and chips,

from cafes and restaurants.

It is amazing

I see the finish line

as I race near the Rhine.

It's a race against time!

Again I hear something,

it's the snap of the ribbon.

Archie Hickford

Skipping

I feel the rope behind my back wanting me to pull,

I hear the swooshing
from my rope,

I smell my dinner cooking making my belly rumble.

I see the rope before my eyes,
And leap a great leap.

When I'm on my toes
I feel confident and proud.

Elijah

Soft adventures

I can see the river flowing

I can feel the breeze blowing

I can hear the wood going

Woods are going all the way home into my snuggly bed.

I've had fun

I hope next time

fun on my toes.

Francesca Chuhan

Sport

I can feel my heart pounding as I rush through the thin fresh air.
I can see the other runners
rushing past me,
throwing all the wind on to me.
I can smell the warm ready food
for break,
and with the air swimming against me,
I can hear the crowd cheering me on and all I can do is obey them and come first.
When I'm on my toes
I can feel the big black pressure during my race

Millie

Sports

I can smell something burning with excitement.

I can hear people cheering.

My heart beats faster because when I run
it beats faster.

Adam Rabani

Swimming

When I am swimming

I hear the sea rumbling

I see the waves crashing

people making noises

babies are crying.

When I am on my toes

I feel like sand is on me.

I got in my swimming costume and jumped in the sea

with a SPLASH.

I see waves clashing on a surfboard.

When I am on my toes I feel lucky.

Aaisha Kamar

Swimming

When my toes feel steady

I feel confident.

I love swimming.

I am staying in the pool

all day long.

Maleehah

Table Football

I see the rubber
of the table football.

It feels weird.

I feel nervous
because I don't know who's going to win.

Your ???

because you have to twist the handles to make the players move.

You should try it because it is fun.

If you try it

I think you will like it!

Antony

Tennis Matches

I feel my heart pounding
as people are cheering for me.
I am getting ready for this big day.

The other person wants to win
But I won't let him.
My toes are ready to jump up in the air.

It's starting.
He hits the ball and I hit it back.
Already my trainers are sweaty.

I see the ball
coming towards me.
I feel like giving up but I can't.
So I carry on.

I am hitting it really well.
Then the judgement calls out.
I am the winner.

The cricket match

When I watch a cricket match

I hear a rattling noise.

I like batting

it is very fun.

I like bowling with a hard ball.

My daddy is very tall

My dad does very hard shots.

Me and my brother don't do hard shots.

Before the match starts

I go to the shops

I'm going because

England and France are playing.
